

NEWS AND NOTES FOR NOVEMBER 26 & 27, 2022

November Featured Hymn: This month our featured hymn is "The Clouds of Judgment Gather" (LSB 513). The origins of the hymn date back to a twelfth-century Latin poem written by a French monk named Bernard of Cluny, who was a member of the Benedictine Abbey of Cluny. This poem, De contemptu mundi or On Contempt of the World, consists of almost three thousand lines of poetry written in dactylic hexameter, a particularly difficult poetic meter. The poem was written to emphasize the depravity of earthly life through images drawn from the Book of Revelation. The text of Hymn 672, "Jerusalem the Golden," is also taken from the lines of this same poem. The tune we sing with this hymn, Llangloffan, is from an early nineteenth-century folk tune that was sung in England and Wales, and is named after a hamlet in Wales. The exact origins of the melody and its composer are unknown. (from Lutheran Service Book, Companion to the Hymns).

Sunday Morning Bible Class We are following a Lutheran Hour Ministry Bible Study, on the life of Martin Luther. From his humble beginnings in Germany, Martin Luther inspired a Reformation that reverberates throughout Christendom to this day. We meet in the chapel after the Divine Service.

Lutheran Witness subscriptions can be ordered now through December 5th. This magazine is published 11 times per year and provides Missouri Synod laypeople with stories and information that complement congregational life, foster personal growth in faith, and help interpret the contemporary world from a Lutheran Christian perspective. Each issue comes with the Michigan In Touch supplement at no extra cost to those who subscribe through the District Office renewal process. Yearly subscriptions (March 2023-February 2024) are $11.60 if ordered through the church office. Payment can be dropped in the offering plate in a separate envelope marked "Lutheran Witness" or mailed to the church office. Checks should be made payable to St. Peter Lutheran Church; include your name and address in the envelope if paying with cash. Call the church office 989.642.8188 with any questions.

Poinsettia Order It time to order poinsettia plants that will adorn the altar this Christmas season. Order forms are on the table in the narthex. Please follow the instructions on the form for placing your order. The deadline is December 5th.

A LifeQuote from Lutherans for Life of Michigan

"These two choices are vastly different: to give birth to a child or to abort it. But one thing is the same: to choose Jesus is to choose life. For Jesus holds every life—even the tiniest—in the nail-scarred palm of His hand."

- Rev. Gary Blobaum, St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, Oregon, Illinois

Lectionary Summary

FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT

(27 November 2022)

Isaiah 2:1-5

Romans 13:(8-10) 11-14

Matthew 21:1-11 or Matthew 24:36-44

The Lord Comes in Meekness and Humility to Save Us Now

The Lord Jesus enters Jerusalem "humble, and mounted on a donkey," riding on "a beast of burden" (Matt. 21:5), as He Himself bears the sins of the world in His body. Now He comes by the ministry of the Gospel to save us from sin, death, the devil and hell. Therefore, we sing, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" (Matt. 21:9). For we are called "to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob," His Holy Church, "that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths" (Is. 2:3). By His Word, we "walk in the light of the LORD" (Is. 2:5). That is to live in love, which "does no wrong to a neighbor" (Rom. 13:10). We "cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light," for "salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed" (Rom. 13:11, 12). Hence, the entire Christian life is a time to wake and watch, "for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming" (Matt. 24:42).
