

LUTHERAN SCHOOL SPELLING BEE

MEDIUM WORDS

1. combination D: a joining of two or more; a combining
S: The combination of red and yellow makes orange.
2. league D: a compact or covenant made for promoting common interests
S: This summer I will join a golf league.
3. generation D: a single stage in the succession of natural descent
S: The younger generation enjoys loud music.
4. destination D: the place towards which someone is going
S: Chicago is the destination of our next trip.
5. altogether D: wholly, completely
S: The house was altogether destroyed by the fire.
6. university D: an education institution of the highest level
S: In the fall I will be attending the university.
7. contentedly D: being satisfied with what one has
S: He sat contentedly by the fire after the delicious meal.
8. ponchos D: blanket-like cloaks with a hole in the center to admit the head
S: They slipped ponchos over their heads before running in the rain.
9. species D: a class of individuals having some common characteristics
S: The sunfish is a member of the fish species.
10. government D: the exercise of authority over a country, state, etc.
S: Society could not exist without government.
11. autumn D: the season of the year between summer and winter
S: September 21st usually marks the beginning of autumn.
12. circuit D: the line or length of the line forming an area's boundaries
S: The earth's circuit around the sun takes about a year.
13. eighth D: proceeded by seven others in a series
S: She was the eighth person in line.
14. alien D: belonging to another country or people; foreigner
S: During WW II an alien had to register with the government.
15. descended D: moved from a higher to a lower place
S: They descended from the third floor of the store to the second.
16. cannon D: a large mounted piece of artillery
S: The cannon boomed loudly as the enemy soldiers approached.
17. wooly or woolly D: of or like wool
S: The blanket was soft and woolly in touch.
18. kimono D: a traditional Japanese costume
S: The kimono is a traditional outfit worn by Japanese men and women.
19. seized D: caught
S: They seized the burglar a black from the scene of the crime.
20. successful D: turning out to be as hoped
S: Her business became very successful when sales increased.
21. committee D: a group of persons organized to support some cause
S: The committee worked to raise money for a charity.
22. though D: in spite of the fact
S: Though he may fail, he will have tried.

23. hurriedly D: to do something in a state of rushing
S: He hurriedly locked the door and ran for his car.
24. volunteered D: offered to do something of one's own free will
S: We volunteered to help at the bake sale.
25. edibles D: things fit to be eaten
S: The berries on the tree were edibles.
26. proceeded D: advanced or went on, especially after stopping
S: They proceeded with the test after the fire drill.
27. ancestors D: persons from whom one is descended
S: My ancestors came to this country from Germany.
28. unconcerned D: not concerned; not interested
S: He was unconcerned about the upcoming fuel shortage.
29. disappeared D: gone out of sight
S: The sun disappeared over the horizon and could not be seen.
30. unfamiliar D: not acquainted with; strange
S: They walked hastily into the unfamiliar surroundings.
31. immigrant D: one that comes into a new country or region
S: My grandfather was an immigrant to the United States.
32. pardonable D: being able to release from punishment or penalty
S: Giving the cat a bath was a pardonable offense.
33. alligator D: a large reptile of the crocodile group
S: We came upon an alligator while hiking through the Florida swamp.
34. indifferent D: having or showing no interest, concern, or feeling
S: The boy was bothered by his father's indifferent attitude.
35. thermometer D: an instrument for measuring temperatures
S: The thermometer showed that it was 80 degrees in the sun.
36. recollection D: the act of calling back to mind; remembrance
S: John still has no recollection of his accident.
37. bearded D: having a beard; hair growing on the face
S: I did not recognize the bearded man.
38. mischief D: a troublesome or annoying act; prank
S: Mother reminded the children to stay out of mischief.
39. tough D: strong, robust, hardy, stubborn, hard to chew
S: She did not enjoy the steak because it was tough.
40. dimensions D: measurement in length, breadth, and often height
S: To buy carpet, you must know the dimensions of your room.
41. soothe D: to make calm; to relieve pain
S: Mother tried to soothe the crying child.
42. surgeon D: a doctor who practices surgery
S: That doctor is a surgeon.
43. guard D: to protect from harm
S: I will guard her from the dog.
44. cafeteria D: a restaurant where patrons serve themselves
S: I eat in the school's cafeteria for lunch every day.
45. pastime D: a way of spending spare time
S: A favorite pastime of mine is sewing.
46. astonished D: surprised greatly, amazed
S: The gift astonished the boy.

47. mannish D: characteristics of a man
S: That is a mannish way to hold a baby.
48. ruined D: to be greatly damaged
S: The painting was ruined because of the rain.
49. severely D: strictly; sternly; harshly
S: He was severely punished for his crime.
50. palace D: a grand house for a king, queen, or bishop
S: Many kings live in a palace.
51. coffee D: a dark brown drink usually served hot
S: My mom drinks coffee every morning.
52. considerable D: a great deal
S: There was a considerable amount of damage to the car.
53. pleasures D: feelings of being delighted
S: There are many pleasures in life if you look for them.
54. batteries D: two or more electric cells that produce electric current
S: He put new batteries in the flashlight.
55. noticeable D: able to be seen or noticed
S: The scar on your arm is barely noticeable.
56. naturally D: in a natural way; as might be expected
S: Please try to speak naturally.
57. observation D: act, habit, or power of seeing and noticing
S: By his trained observation, the doctor knew he was not dead.
58. appendix D: addition at the end of a book or document
S: The book does not contain an appendix.
59. dictionary D: a book containing pronunciations and definitions of words
S: The winners of this spelling bee receive a dictionary.
60. valleys D: low land between hills or mountains
S: The river runs through several valleys.
61. episode D: incident or experience that stands out from the others
S: The year in France was an important episode in his life.
62. disgusted D: filled with strong dislike
S: The smell of the pigpen disgusted me.
63. captain D: leader; chief
S: The captain chose the members of his team.
64. succeeded D: turned out well; did well
S: He succeeded in becoming a lawyer.
65. rummage D: search thoroughly by moving things about
S: I had to rummage through three drawers before I found my book.
66. connected D: joined; linked; fastened together
S: The plumber connected the pipes.
67. tomorrow D: the day after today
S: The science test will be given tomorrow.
68. praises D: words or songs setting forth the glory of God
S: The choir sang praises to the Lord.
69. cautiously D: very carefully
S: He cautiously walked along the steep path.
70. decision D: act of making up one's mind
S: He made the decision to attend college.

71. temporary D: lasting for a short time only
S: The detour will be only temporary.
72. mechanics D: knowledge dealing with machinery
S: He understands the mechanics of how an engine works.
73. icicle D: a pointed, hanging stick of ice formed by the dripping of water
S: An icicle was hanging from the roof.
74. breathlessly D: in an out-of-breath manner
S: He breathlessly ran to report the fire.
75. poodle D: one of an intelligent breed of dog with curly hair
S: Our new pet dog is a poodle.
76. whistle D: make clear, shrill sound
S: She likes to whistle while she works.
77. marriage D: ceremony of being married; living together as husband and wife
S: He attended the marriage of his aunt and uncle.
78. mallet D: a wooden hammer
S: The croquet mallet is brightly colored.
79. remembrance D: power to remember; memory
S: America holds it heroes in grateful remembrance.
80. enlighten D: give the light of truth and knowledge to
S: He will soon enlighten us as to why he is here.
81. preceding D: going before; coming before, previous
S: You read about it in the preceding chapter.
82. fattest D: most plump; most well-fed
S: The farmer butchered the fattest pig.
83. swollen D: swelled; increased in size
S: My swollen ankle caused me a great deal of pain.
84. relative D: a person who belongs to the same family as another
S: Mr. Smith is a distant relative of mine.
85. transferred D: conveyed or removed from one place to another.
S: My father has been transferred to Chicago.
86. whirling D: turning round and round; spinning
S: The leaves were whirling around in the wind.
87. meanwhile D: in the time between
S: Father was in Boston; meanwhile, we were at the beach.
88. forgetting D: failing to remember; being unable to remember
S: John is always forgetting his wife's birthday.
89. buffalo D: the bison of America
S: The Plains Indians used to hunt the buffalo.
90. department D: a separate part; special branch; division
S: Susan works in the housewares department.
91. allowance D: a limited share set apart; a definite portion
S: Michael's allowance is two dollars per week.
92. announced D: given formal or public notice
S: Tom and Judy announced their engagement at the party.
93. piercing D: making a hole in
S: The nurse is piercing the ears of the little girl.
94. corridor D: a long hallway
S: There are doors on either side of the corridor.

95. grumbling D: muttering in discontent; complaining
S: Some people were grumbling about the bad weather.
96. shuddered D: trembled with horror, fear, cold, etc.
S: She shuddered at the thought of going to the dentist.
97. pronounced D: made the sounds of
S: The spellmaster pronounced the words clearly.
98. assistance D: help; aid
S: Your assistance was greatly appreciated.
99. combustion D: act or process of burning
S: The explosion in the coal mine was caused by combustion.
100. athletic D: active and strong
S: The girls were very athletic and played many sports.
101. outstretched D: extended; stretched out
S: He welcomed his friend with outstretched arms.
102. aviator D: person who flies an airplane
S: My uncle is an excellent aviator.
103. murmur D: a soft, low, indistinct sound
S: The murmur of the stream was very soothing.
104. unusual D: not usual, not common; rare
S: I could not identify the unusual bird.
105. suddenly D: in a sudden manner; unexpected
S: Suddenly, it began to rain.
106. agency D: means; action
S: Snow is drifted by the agency of the wind.
107. original D: first; earliest; new; fresh; novel
S: The original inhabitants were the Indians.
108. rhythm D: movement with a regular repetition of a beat or accent
S: Janet enjoys the rhythm of the dance.
109. ascend D: go up; rise; move upward
S: They watched the bird ascend up into the sky.
110. stubborn D: fixed in purpose or opinion
S: The stubborn mule would not move.
111. machine D: device for applying power and changing direction
S: A lever is a simple machine.
112. process D: set of actions or changes in a special order
S: By what process is cloth made from wool?
113. verily D: truly
S: I verily mean what I say.
114. budget D: estimate of the amount of money that can be spent
S: We must plan our budget very carefully.
115. inherit D: receive as an heir
S: Someday he will inherit the farm from his father.
116. mortgage D: claim on a property, given to a person who has loaned money
S: They went to the bank to apply for a mortgage.
117. stanza D: group of lines of poetry
S: He recited one stanza of the poem.
118. commanded D: gave an order to; directed
S: He commanded his dog to lie down.

119. actually D: really; in fact
S: Are you actually going to Europe this summer?
120. gnawing D: biting at and wearing down
S: The gerbil is gnawing at his cage.
121. scholar D: a learned person
S: Professor Lodge was a famous Latin scholar.
122. bonfire D: fire built outdoors
S: We roasted marshmallows at the bonfire.
123. eighteen D: eight more than ten
S: There are eighteen children in the class.
124. entice D: tempt by arousing hopes or desires
S: The devil tries to entice us to sin.
125. lilies D: plants with bell-shaped flowers which grow from a bulb
S: The Easter lilies were beautiful and fragrant.
126. consonant D: any letter of the alphabet that is not a vowel
S: He can identify most consonant sounds.
127. tragic D: having to do with tragedy; very sad
S: We read about the tragic death of the baseball player.
128. synod D: assembly called together to discuss and decide church affairs
S: He attended the convention of the synod.
129. waffle D: a batter cake cooked on a special griddle
S: A waffle tastes good with syrup on it.
130. awning D: piece of canvas spread over a door, window, or porch
S: The awning offered some protection from the sun.
131. avenue D: wide or main street
S: We took a stroll down the avenue
132. organist D: one who plays the organ
S: Our church organist is very talented.
133. sought D: past tense of seek; looked for
S: For days, she sought a safe hiding place.
134. deceive D: trick, mislead
S: Please do not try to deceive me.
135. adjourn D: to conclude a meeting
S: I will now adjourn the meeting.
136. nowadays D: at the present time
S: Nowadays most people have television sets in their homes.
137. conclusion D: end
S: I especially enjoyed the conclusion of the mystery story.
138. except D: leaving out; but; other than
S: He works every day except Sunday.
139. engaged D: promised; pledged
S: They are engaged to be married.
140. crawled D: moved on one's hands and knees
S: The baby crawled all around the house.
141. sojourn D: stay for a brief time
S: The Israelites had a sojourn into the wilderness.
142. wondrous D: wonderful
S: God's grace is truly wondrous.

143. parade D: march for display; procession
S: We enjoyed watching the colorful parade.
144. mummies D: dead bodies preserved from decay
S: We saw the display of Egyptian mummies at the museum.
145. greased D: smeared with any thick, oily substance
S: I greased the pan before I baked the cookies.
146. mammoth D: a very large, extinct kind of elephant
S: I saw a picture of a mammoth in my science book.
147. butterflies D: various insects with slender bodies and four bright-colored wings
S: He caught some butterflies with his net.
148. series D: number of similar things in a row
S: A series of rooms opened off the long hall.
149. loaves D: breads shaped and baked as one piece
S: I bought three loaves of bread.
150. purchased D: bought
S: We purchased a new sofa.
151. routine D: a fixed, regular method of doing something
S: I sometimes get tired of the same old routine.
152. sharpening D: making sharp
S: Ed is sharpening his pencil.
153. overflowed D: flowed over the bounds; flooded
S: The river overflowed its banks.
154. worse D: less well; more ill than before
S: Today I feel even worse than I did yesterday.
155. motorcycle D: a self-propelled, two-wheeled vehicle
S: His new motorcycle was very costly.
156. throttle D: valve regulating the flow of gasoline to an engine
S: He stepped on the throttle and the lawn mower speeded up.
157. persuaded D: won over; made willing or sure by urging
S: I persuaded mother to let me attend the movie.
158. confession D: admission of guilt
S: The criminal signed the confession.
159. carfare D: money paid for riding on a bus, streetcar, etc.
S: He had no carfare, so he had to walk.
160. refrigerator D: box for keeping foods cool
S: The milk is kept in the refrigerator.
161. telephone D: system for transmitting sound or speech by electricity
S: He called on the telephone to wish me a happy birthday.
162. noticing D: observing; heeding; paying attention to
S: I have been noticing all the flowers blooming by the sidewalk.
163. famous D: very well known
S: My aunt is a famous author.
164. corral D: an enclosed space for keeping horses or cattle
S: My son is down by the corral waiting to ride his horse.
165. determined D: made up one's mind firmly; resolved
S: He was determined to win the blue ribbon at the track meet.
166. assigned D: gave as a task to be done; past tense of assign
S: The teacher assigned ten problems for today.

167. disappointed D: not satisfied
S: He was disappointed with his grade on the test.
168. believed D: to have thought something was true or real
S: In old times, people believed the earth was flat.
169. misjudged D: to have judged wrongly
S: The archer misjudged the distance so his arrow fell short.
170. delicious D: very pleasing or satisfying, especially to the taste or smell
S: Her cake was delicious.
171. position D: place where a thing or person is
S: The flowers grew in a sheltered position behind the house.
172. abruptly D: showing sudden change; unexpectedly
S: She hung the telephone up abruptly when her father entered.
173. association D: a group of people joined together for some purpose
S: Will you join the young people's association at our church?
174. evidence D: anything that shows what is true and what is not; facts; proof
S: The evidence showed that he had not committed the robbery.
175. fatigue D: weariness caused by hard work or effort
S: I felt fatigue after studying for five hours.
176. anxious D: uneasy because of what may happen
S: I felt anxious about my final exams.
177. amidst D: in the middle of, among
S: One boy was standing amidst all the girls.
178. harnessed D: condition of an animal hitched by straps to something it will pull
S: The man harnessed the horse to the wagon.
179. associate D: connect in thought
S: We associate turkey with Thanksgiving.
180. huckleberries D: small berries like blueberries, but darker with larger seeds
S: Let's go pick some huckleberries in the woods.
181. embarked D: went or put on board a ship or aircraft
S: The family embarked for a European trip.
182. intercepted D: taken or seized on the way from one place to another
S: A player from the opposing football team intercepted a pass.
183. alleys D: narrow streets behind or between buildings
S: Both alleys were lined with trash cans.
184. prairie D: a large, grassy, level or slightly rolling area of land
S: Millions of American bison used to roam the prairie lands.
185. estrange D: to turn away in feeling or affection
S: Friends do not estrange one another.
186. senses D: the five faculties: hearing, sight, smell, touch, taste
S: All of his senses were affected by the anesthetic.
187. poured D: caused to flow in a stream
S: He poured milk into the glass.
188. geyser D: a hot spring that intermittently sends up jets of water and steam
S: The crowd watched in awe as the large geyser erupted.
189. crystal D: a clear transparent mineral or glass resembling ice
S: The winning crystal in the science fair was made of alum.
190. boundary D: something that indicates limits
S: Soldiers marched around the boundary of the camp.

191. whiff D: a slight gust or puff of wind, air, smoke, etc.
S: A whiff of garlic came from the kitchen.
192. collapsed D: fallen or caved in; to fold together compactly
S: The bridge collapsed under the weight of several trucks.
193. applause D: approval, especially as expressed by clapping the hands
S: There was two minutes of applause after the performance.
194. propeller D: a device having a revolving hub with radiating blades
S: As the propeller moved faster, the craft began to move forward.
195. appetite D: a desire for food or drink; any bodily need or craving
S: After missing lunch his appetite was enormous for dinner.
196. similar D: alike in a general way but not exactly
S: All the houses on that street are similar to one another.
197. unhitched D: freed from a hitch
S: The farmer unhitched the wagon from the tractor.
198. staggered D: moved unsteadily, shocked or astounded; arranged in a zigzag order
S: The patient staggered since the anesthetic had not fully worn off.
199. confused D: made unclear or uncertain
S: The student was still confused by the complex problem.
200. promptly D: punctually; done without delay
S: Because he had studied, he promptly responded to every question.
201. buried D: covered in order to conceal
S: The pirates buried their treasures immediately.
202. commission D: a group of persons charged with a particular function
S: The chairperson appointed a commission to investigate the problem.
203. intention D: aim; goal; purpose
S: Getting straight A's all year was intention for eighth grade.
204. wonderful D: causing or arousing wonder
S: The gifted speaker delivered a wonderful speech to the crowd.
205. official D: appointed, authorized, or approved by governing organization
S: He served as the official representative of the governor.
206. fiery D: consisting of or containing fire
S: There was a fiery explosion at the chemical plant.
207. derrick D: a tower-like framework used for drilling a well
S: A derrick was needed to lift the large stone monument.
208. stomach D: an organ for storing and digesting food
S: He skipped lunch because his stomach ached.
209. drowsy D: half asleep; inducing sleepiness
S: Because he miss his nap, the baby was drowsy.
210. heavily D: of great amount, intensity, size, or force
S: The commandos were heavily armed and protected.
211. exploded D: burst forth violently or emotionally
S: The crowd exploded with cheers when they won the championship.
212. fiend D: a diabolically cruel or wicked person
S: He is considered a fiend because of his many terrorist activities.
213. literature D: any kind of printed material, as circulars
S: He read all the literature he could about rocketry.
214. pieces D: portions or quantities of a material; forming a separate entity
S: The children lost several pieces of the puzzle.

215. lawyer D: a person whose profession is to advise clients on matters of law
S: The family lawyer represented them at the hearing.
216. avail D: to be of use or value
S: The donations are of no avail to a family too proud to accept them.
217. ghastly D: shockingly frightful; resembling to a ghost
S: There were many ghastly scenes in the horror movie.
218. ether D: a highly volatile, flammable liquid used as an anesthetic
S: Surgeons no longer use ether to put their patients to sleep.
219. unbuttoned D: unfastened buttons
S: The boys unbuttoned their shirts when the temperature reached 95 degrees.
220. tangled D: twisted into a mass of confusedly interlaced parts
S: Her hair was so tangled she could not pass a comb through it.
221. entitle D: to name or designate; to give a title, right, or claim to
S: The court order will entitle the police to search the building.
222. raising D: cause to grow
S: They are raising sugar beets in that field.
223. regardless D: having or showing no consideration for
S: He continued to swim regardless of the lifeguard's warning.
224. itemize D: list things one by one
S: Please itemize the repairs on my car.
225. hoisted D: raise or lift, especially by a mechanical device
S: The ship hoisted anchor.
226. wrestle D: struggle to overcome another and force to the ground
S: The policeman had to wrestle the burglar to the ground.
227. beneath D: below; under and covered by; in a lower place than
S: The rug is beneath your feet.
228. glorious D: wonderful; splendid; noble
S: We watched a glorious sunrise over Lake Huron.
229. stirrup D: a ring hanging from the saddle to support the rider's foot
S: He placed his foot in the stirrup.
230. scraping D: rub with a sharp tool or rough material to make a smooth surface
S: He was scraping the paint off the wall.
231. trespassing D: to make an improper inroad on a person's presence, time, or privacy
S: The sign read "No Trespassing".
232. reverence D: feeling of great respect
S: He treated his new car with reverence.
233. gardener D: one who gardens
S: The gardener takes special care with his roses.
234. partridge D: common name for several scratching, chicken-like game birds
S: People hunt partridge in the fall.
235. bodies D: whole physical structures of animals or persons
S: Thousands of human bodies crowded the arena to see the playoffs.
236. chasm D: a wide opening, as in the earth
S: There was a large chasm between the two cliffs.
237. gathered D: collected, as a harvest
S: The farmer gathered the watermelons.

238. shriek D: utter or make a sharp high sound or cry; a scream
S: A shriek of terror came from the dark mansion.
239. unwrapping D: opening or undoing
S: I like unwrapping my birthday gifts.
240. intervals D: times between events
S: The intervals between tennis matches got longer and longer.
241. lurch D: to roll or stagger to one side
S: The wave caused him to lurch against the railing on the deck.
242. bluish D: color like that of a clear sky
S: The light gave the room a bluish tint.
243. expensive D: costing much; very high priced
S: A college education can be very expensive.
244. consented D: agreed; gave approval
S: He consented to let his daughter borrow the car.
245. collected D: brought together
S: The teacher collected the reports.
246. intervened D: came between in order to settle or solve
S: Our pastor intervened in the argument.
247. toward D: in the direction of
S: The two boys walked toward the pool.
248. horrid D: terrible; dreadful; shocking
S: The accident was a horrid experience.
249. wounded D: injured, hurt
S: He was wounded in the leg.
250. approached D: moved near to in space, time, quality
S: The little girl carefully approached the dove.
251. embankment D: a mound or bank raised to hold back water or for roadbeds
S: The car rolled down the steep embankment.
252. baggage D: suitcases, boxes, trunks used in traveling
S: She lost her baggage during the flight.
253. druggist D: one who makes or sells drugs
S: The druggist carefully filled my prescription.
254. finally D: at the end; last
S: The last day of school finally came.
255. operation D: performing a surgery
S: The heart transplant operation was very difficult.
256. regretted D: felt sorry about something that was done or happened
S: We regretted the trick we played on her.
257. poisonous D: able to destroy life or injure health
S: Poisonous house plants must be kept away from small children.
258. exhausted D: tire very much
S: The hard work exhausted him.
259. inquired D: asked; requested information
S: They inquired about the new student.
260. mentally D: of or pertaining to the mind
S: He solved the difficult problem mentally.
261. whether D: either; one or the other
S: She could not decide whether to go or to stay.

262. accepted D: took a thing that was offered
S: The principal accepted the award for the most improved school.
263. decorated D: beautified
S: The cake was decorated with flowers.
264. selected D: chosen or picked
S: The best student was selected to give the speech.
265. paragraph D: a subdivision of a writing
S: The teacher assigned the first paragraph for reading.
266. rough D: not smooth
S: The road was rough.
267. midst D: middle
S: The little child was lost in the midst of the crowd.
268. appearance D: coming in sight
S: The appearance of the stars was beautiful
269. entertained D: to receive a guest
S: She politely entertained her guest.
270. nostrils D: one of the external openings of the nose
S: Air enters our bodies through the nostrils.
271. tunnels D: an underground passageway
S: Three tunnels wove through the mountain range.
272. dribbled D: bounced a ball repeatedly
S: The basketball player dribbled the ball down the floor.
273. commotion D: violent motion
S: The wind caused a big commotion.
274. adorable D: loved deeply
S: Grandma said the little girl was adorable.
275. underneath D: below; beneath
S: He looked for the lost book underneath his bed.
276. knowledge D: information or learning
S: There is much knowledge to learn in school.
277. capsized D: overturned
S: The boat capsized in the storm.
278. preparation D: act of making ready for use
S: There was much preparation for the party
279. business D: employment or trade
S: The storekeeper's business was doing well.
280. pattering D: quick succession of small taps or sounds
S: The rain was pattering on the window.
281. stretched D: tightened or pulled out
S: The children stretched their muscles with exercise.
282. consisted D: was composed of
S: The crowd consisted of men, women, and children.
283. journey D: travel from one place to another
S: The journey to the moon was exciting.
284. experiment D: the action or a practical test
S: The science experiment proved his theory.
285. frigid D: very cold
S: January was a very frigid month.

286. recipe D: a prescription
S: Mother's cake recipe was the best.
287. pigeons D: any birds of the dove family
S: The pigeons ate bread crumbs in the park.
288. belongings D: one's possessions
S: He packed his belongings for the trip.
289. examined D: inquired into or tested
S: The judge examined the evidence.
290. phrase D: a small group of words forming part of a sentence
S: He didn't know the meaning of the phrase.
291. sandwiches D: two thin slices of bread with meat, etc. between them
S: Mother made sandwiches for the picnic.
292. acquired D: gained or obtained
S: The student had acquired much knowledge in school.
293. instead D: in place of
S: They played instead of working.
294. beggar D: one who asks for alms
S: The beggar was asking for food.
295. liniment D: lotion or soft ointment
S: Dad rubbed liniment in his sore muscles.
296. invitation D: spoken or written request for a person's company
S: The girl received an invitation to the party.
297. revived D: to awaken or to come back to life
S: The man has recently revived his old interest in sports.
298. meant D: intended
S: He meant to give up or surrender.
299. abandoned D: to give up or to surrender
S: He abandoned his old home.
300. knives D: cutting instruments
S: Mother sharpened all of her old knives.
301. giraffe D: an African animal with a spotted coat and very long neck and legs
S: The giraffe was too tall for the barn.
302. trifle D: anything of little value or importance
S: That soup is a trifle salty.
303. humility D: free from pride
S: Christians pray for humility.
304. powdered D: to sprinkle with powder
S: The lady powdered her face.
305. mention D: to notice or name
S: She will mention the problem at the meeting.
306. challenge D: an invitation to a contest
S: David accepted Goliath's challenge to fight.
307. radiator D: an apparatus for heating rooms
S: The radiator heated the room comfortably.
308. professor D: a teacher in a university
S: The professor gave a big assignment.
309. niece D: the daughter of a brother or sister
S: My niece came to visit me.

310. absolution D: a remission of sin after confession
S: The pastor assures us of complete absolution for our sins.
311. particular D: relating to a single person or thing, not general
S: The man wanted a particular golf club.
312. supposed D: accepted as a possible fact
S: The little boy is supposed to do his homework.
313. directory D: a book containing directions or alphabetically arranged names
S: We received our new telephone directory.
314. laughable D: comical or funny
S: That was a laughable joke.
315. penetrate D: to enter into or pierce
S: The arrow will penetrate the bullseye.
316. transom D: a window over a doorway
S: We could look out the transom only while standing on a chair.
317. scared D: frightened
S: The little child was scared of the dark.
318. balcony D: a platform projecting from a building
S: The choir sang from the church balcony.
319. renowned D: famous or well known
S: The renowned singer performed for us.
320. comprehend D: to understand
S: The student could not comprehend the assignment.
321. exterior D: the outer surface
S: We painted the exterior of the house.
322. wandered D: journeying here and there
S: The Children of Israel wandered the desert for forty years.
323. elevated D: lifted up
S: He had to keep his broken leg elevated.
324. worried D: troubled or anxious
S: The parents worried when their child was late.
325. cottage D: a small house in the country or at a resort
S: We stayed in a cottage while on our fishing trip.
326. authority D: legal power or right
S: Police have the authority to enforce traffic laws.
327. denial D: a flat contradiction
S: Jesus predicted Peter's denial of Him.
328. circular D: round, in the form of a circle
S: The roller rink is a circular room.
329. wealthy D: having riches
S: The wealthy lady bought an expensive car.
330. lecture D: a discourse or a speech on any subject
S: We heard a lecture on manners.
331. rescued D: freed from danger
S: The man was rescued from the fire.
332. instruments D: tools, implements or means of producing musical sounds
S: The band played many different instruments.
333. majority D: more than half
S: The majority of students wanted less homework.

334. treasure D: that which has great value or worth
S: Friendship is a treasure.
335. cinders D: the remains of burned coal
S: Cinderella sat among the ashes and cinders.
336. article D: a literary composition
S: She read the article in the newspaper.
337. pertaining D: belonging to; concerning
S: We saw a movie pertaining to health.
338. weary D: tired, bored
S: The weary travelers welcomed a rest.
339. extravagant D: expensive; wasteful
S: The wealthy man bought extravagant clothes.
340. elephant D: a large four footed animal having a long flexible trunk
S: The circus elephant did many tricks.
341. impudent D: rude
S: The impudent child was very disrespectful.
342. although D: Admitting that
S: Although the outside needed paint, the inside was beautiful.
343. sacrament D: a sacred act instituted by Christ
S: Baptism is a sacrament.
344. alibi D: an excuse or plea that one was elsewhere when a crime was committed
S: The prisoner had an alibi for the time of the crime.
345. bargain D: an agreement between parties buying and selling
S: The shopper thought the price of the article was a bargain.
346. perilous D: dangerous
S: Mountain climbing can be perilous.
347. failure D: the act of not succeeding in doing or getting something
S: She was disappointed at her failure to get on the swimming team.
348. fiddled D: to play a violin
S: He fiddled and everyone danced.
349. internal D: having to do with the inside; on the inside; interior
S: The stomach and kidneys are internal organs of the body.
350. hastened D: moved quickly; speeded up; hurried
S: The medicine hastened the recovery of the sick boy.
351. obscured D: hard to understand; not clearly expressed; not easily seen
S: Fog obscured the moon.
352. apostle D: an early follower of Christ
S: John was called the apostle whom Christ loved.
353. awakened D: to wake up
S: He awakened when the dog barked.
354. detective D: person who searches for information to solve crimes
S: Bob pictures himself as a famous detective.
355. double D: twice as many or as much
S: People stood in a double line in front of the theater.
356. pleasant D: giving pleasure
S: It was cool and pleasant by the lake.
357. revenue D: money that is made from property or other investments
S: The company's revenue rose last year.

358. formally D: very stiff and proper
S: The teacher spoke so formally that the students were afraid of him.
359. religion D: belief in our worship of God
S: Frank's religion is not the same as Shelly's.
360. inventor D: a person who invents
S: Alfred Nobel was the inventor of dynamite.
361. guardian D: a person chosen by law to take care of someone else
S: After the baby's parents died, her uncle became her guardian.
362. baptism D: a religious ceremony of applying water to a person
S: A sign of being admitted into the Christian church is the rite of baptism.
363. further D: to help forward; support
S: The United Nations was formed to further the cause of peace.
364. heaviest D: having the greatest weight
S: Ron's desk was the heaviest in the room.
365. swallowed D: to cause food to pass from the mouth to the stomach
S: Ruth swallowed her milk quickly when the bell rang.
366. telescope D: an instrument that makes distant objects seem larger and nearer
S: A telescope is very useful for studying the stars and planets.
367. borrowed D: used something from another person for a short while
S: We borrowed books from the library.
368. tension D: mental or emotional strain
S: He was under a great deal of tension.
369. messages D: words sent from one person or group to another
S: The president's messages were broadcast over the radio.
370. curious D: eager to learn about things that are new, strange, or interesting
S: I was really curious to know more about the cuckoo.
371. sickening D: causing nausea or disgust; revolting
S: The odor from the factory was sickening.
372. replenish D: to fill up again; restock
S: The storekeeper will have to replenish his supply of lettuce.
373. facing D: have or turn the face toward
S: We will all be facing the camera.
374. diamonds D: colorless minerals formed of carbon crystals
S: Diamonds are used in industry for cutting and grinding.
375. carelessness D: not paying close enough attention to what one is doing or saying
S: Joan's carelessness caused her to trip and fall on the stairs.
376. necessary D: that which cannot be done without; required
S: Proper food and rest are necessary for good health.
377. steadily D: continuing without a break or change
S: They gained steadily in speed until they reached the truck.
378. cemetery D: place for burying the dead
S: Many brave soldiers are buried in that cemetery.
379. encampment D: making of a camp; settlement in a camp
S: The Indian encampment was neat and orderly.
380. expedition D: a journey made for a particular reason
S: The scientists made an expedition to Alaska for research.
381. assortment D: a collection of different things
S: That store carries a large assortment of sports equipment.

382. gnats D: small flies
S: Some gnats bite and suck blood from people and animals.
383. worsted D: yarn made from long, closely twisted wool strands
S: The imported suit was made from worsted wool.
384. miraculous D: able to perform wonders; marvelous
S: The light bulb was a miraculous invention.
385. emperor D: a man who is ruler over a country
S: The emperor can be seen only with special permission.
386. scrambling D: to force one's way by use of the hands and feet
S: Everyone was scrambling to be the first to reach the summit.
387. pearly D: like pearl or mother of pearl
S: The pearly button was really made of plastic.
388. sympathy D: the ability to share and understand the sorrows of others
S: Bill had sympathy for the hurt dog.
389. treacherous D: disloyal or dangerous
S: The treacherous man betrayed his country to the enemy.
390. immensely D: enormously; huge
S: The grand opening was immensely successful.
391. attracted D: to draw to oneself or itself
S: the magnet attracted the iron filings.
392. chocolate D: a sweet substance made from cacao seeds
S: The candy was made out of chocolate.
393. seventeenth D: the one following the sixteenth
S: She was the seventeenth person in line.
394. cruising D: sailing from place to place, as for pleasure
S: They went cruising across the lake in their boat.
395. diameter D: the width of a circle through the center
S: The diameter of the circle was three feet.
396. senior D: student in the last year of a high school or college
S: Bill was a senior in high school.
397. disease D: condition of not being healthy; illness in general
S: She had a disease that could not be cured.
398. possibly D: perhaps; maybe
S: It will possibly snow today.
399. cashier D: person who takes in or pays out money
S: I gave the cashier at the store my money.
400. humorous D: funny; amusing; comical
S: The comedy was very humorous.
401. companion D: one who spends much time with another or others in work, play, etc.
S: My wife is my companion for life.
402. insurance D: an insuring against lost by fire, accident, death, etc.
S: She bought a life insurance policy.
403. received D: to take or get something
S: He received his paycheck at the end of the week.
404. impossible D: not capable of being, being done, or happening
S: It is impossible for us to save ourselves from eternal death.
405. sorrowful D: feeling, causing, or expressing sorrow; sad
S: The disciples were sorrowful when Jesus was crucified.

406. response D: something said or done in answer; reply; reaction
S: Jesus said nothing in response to Herod's questions.
407. entrance D: a place for entering; door; gate
S: The disciples went through the south entrance into the city.
408. distance D: space between two points
S: They traveled a great distance to see the baby Jesus.
409. yesterday D: the day before today
S: Yesterday, we went to church.
410. umbrella D: cloth or plastic stretched over a frame at the top of a stick
S: She took her umbrella because it was going to rain.
411. suburb D: a district or town on the outskirts of a city
S: We lived in a suburb of New York City.
412. rumbling D: making a deep, heavy rolling sound, as thunder
S: We heard the thunder rumbling in the distance.
413. remnants D: what is left over; remainder
S: She used the cloth remnants to make napkins.
414. hitched D: fastened with a hook, knot, strap, etc.
S: They hitched the wagon to the horses.
415. drowned D: to die by being kept under water so that one cannot breathe
S: The small child drowned after falling out of the boat.
416. reminded D: to put in min; cause to remember
S: The teacher reminded the students about the field trip.
417. destroyed D: torn down; demolished
S: Jesus destroyed the power of the devil.
418. meadow D: a piece of grassland whose grass is grown for use as hay
S: The cows were grazing in the meadow.
419. midget D: very small person
S: He was a midget who entertained people for a living.
420. enjoyable D: giving or capable of giving enjoyment; pleasurable
S: Singing hymns is very enjoyable.
421. visible D: that which can be seen
S: The plane was visible about the horizon.
422. hatchet D: a small ax with a short handle for use with one hand
S: He used a hatchet to chop the fire wood.
423. shoulder D: the joint connecting the arm or forelimb with the body
S: He hurt his shoulder when he threw the ball.
424. bordered D: be next to
S: Canada has bordered the United States for over 200 years.
425. occupy D: to take possession of by settlement or seizure
S: The army will occupy the fortified city.
426. tramped D: to walk with heavy steps
S: The soldiers tramped through the mud.
427. hourly D: done or happening every hour or during an hour
S: He was supposed to call home hourly.
428. different D: not alike
S: The brothers were different in many ways.
429. dreadful D: inspiring dread; terrible; awesome
S: The crucifixion of Jesus was dreadful.

430. interesting D: exciting interest, curiosity, or attention
S: The sermon was very interesting
431. community D: all the people living in a particular district, city, etc.
S: They lived in a small farming community.
432. alphabet D: the letters of a language, arranged in a traditional order
S: She memorized the alphabet backwards and forwards.
433. preserves D: to keep from harm, damage, etc.; protect
S: Our Heavenly Father still preserves us.
434. bandaged D: to put a bandage on
S: The mother bandaged her son's cut.
435. material D: of matter; relating to or consisting of what occupies space
S: Of what kind of material was the dress made?
436. candidates D: persons who are nominated by others for office
S: Who are the candidates for President this year?
437. afford D: to have enough to pay for an item
S: She could not afford to buy that car.
438. inning D: the period of play in which a team has a turn at bat
S: They came to bat in the sixth inning.
439. exclaimed D: to cry out; speak or say suddenly and excitedly
S: "Watch out!" he exclaimed.
440. biscuits D: quick breads baked in small pieces
S: We had biscuits with the chicken.
441. required D: to ask or insist upon
S: We are required to write in complete sentences.
442. funeral D: the ceremony connected with the burial of the dead
S: We attended the funeral for our neighbor.
443. vicinity D: being near or close by
S: The car drove in the vicinity of the police station.
444. desert D: a dry, barren, sandy region
S: There are some flowers that grow in the desert.
445. ordained D: to appoint as a minister, priest, or rabbi
S: The pastor was ordained at a special church service.
446. spinach D: a plant with large, dark green leaves, usually eaten cooked
S: We had spinach last night for supper.
447. vacuum D: space with nothing at all in it
S: In outer space, it is a vacuum.
448. amusement D: the condition of being amused
S: They hired a clown for their amusement.
449. academy D: a private secondary or high school
S: He went to a Lutheran academy for high school.
450. provisions D: a providing or supplying
S: They made provisions for the long winter months.
451. zigzagged D: a series of short, sharp angles or turns in alternate directions
S: They zigzagged back and forth across the field.
452. reference D: a mention or allusion to something
S: She made a reference to the accident in her letter.
453. patrolled D: to make regular, repeated trips around as if guarding
S: The policeman patrolled the area every night.

454. comrades D: close friends; companions
S: The soldiers were comrades.
455. uncomfortable D: not comfortable; feeling discomfort
S: Standing for a long time becomes uncomfortable.
456. dynamite D: a powerful explosive made of nitroglycerin
S: They used dynamite to blow up the building.
457. scarcely D: hardly; barely; only just
S: I can scarcely hear you.
458. thirtieth D: coming after twenty-nine others in a series
S: It was his thirtieth birthday.
459. factories D: buildings in which things are manufactured
S: They visited many factories where cars are made
460. greenness D: having the color of growing grass
S: The rain brought back the greenness of the grass.
461. confirmation D: a Christian ceremony admitting a person to full church membership
S: Every young Christian looks forward to his confirmation.
462. averted D: to turn away
S: She averted her eyes from the accident.
463. demonstration D: making evident or proving
S: He did a demonstration to show how the planets move.
464. temperature D: the degree of hotness or coldness of anything
S: What is the temperature outside right now?
465. portable D: that which can be carried
S: She was carrying a portable radio.
466. choosing D: to pick out; take as a choice; select
S: He had trouble choosing the right answer.
467. referring D: to relate or apply to
S: He was referring to an earlier event.
468. unfortunately D: having bad luck; unlucky
S: Unfortunately, he struck out for the third out in the inning.
469. debater D: one who discusses opposing reasons; one who argues
S: He was a debater for our school debate team.
470. squirrels D: a group of small rodents having a long, bushy tail
S: They saw many squirrels in the forest.
471. reservation D: a reserving or the thing reserved
S: They made a reservation at the hotel for tonight.
472. tobacco D: those leaves, prepared for smoking, chewing, or for use as snuff
S: Smoking tobacco is bad for your health.
473. rejoicing D: to be glad or happy
S: The shepherds were rejoicing at the birth of Jesus.
474. condenser D: an apparatus for converting gases or vapors to a liquid state
S: The condenser in our freezer was broken.
475. attendant D: one who attends or serves
S: He was an attendant at the zoo.
476. mystery D: something unexplained, unknown, or kept secret
S: The Holy Trinity is a mystery to us Christians.
477. trousers D: pants
S: He put on his trousers before he went to work.

478. dozed D: to sleep lightly or fitfully; be half asleep
S: The student dozed during the lecture.
479. millionaire D: a person worth at least a million dollars
S: A millionaire donated some of his money to his church.
480. tragedy D: very said or tragic event
S: The death of the young athlete was a tragedy.
481. barely D: scarcely; scantily
S: She barely escaped injury.
482. talkative D: talking; fond of talking a great deal
S: The students were very talkative.
483. adjusted D: to change so as to fit, conform, make suitable
S: He adjusted the stirrup for the small child.
484. yielded D: to produce
S: The orchard yielded a good crop.
485. acres D: a measure of land; 43,560 square feet
S: The farmer owned 1,000 acres of land.
486. nineteen D: nine more than ten
S: He had nineteen brothers and sisters.
487. championship D: the position or title of a champion
S: The two teams were playing for the championship.
488. microphone D: an instrument that converts sound waves into electric signals
S: The newscaster dropped his microphone.
489. scrubbing D: to clean or wash by rubbing hard
S: She kept scrubbing the floor to try and get it clean.
490. quarter D: any of the four equal part of something; a fourth
S: They had played a quarter of the game.
491. groceries D: the food and supplies sold at a grocery store
S: She bought groceries at the corner market
492. operator D: one who operates; a person who bring something about; agent
S: The telephone operator transferred the call.
493. garage D: a closed shelter for automobiles
S: He parked the car in the garage.
494. popular D: like by many people
S: He was a very popular politician.
495. sanctify D: to make holy; to set apart as holy
S: The Holy Spirit will sanctify you through baptism.
496. opinion D: a belief based on what seems to be true but is not proven
S: What is your opinion about last night's game?
497. entered D: to come or go into
S: They entered the church through the main door.
498. nickel D: a U.S. coin equal to 5 cents
S: She got a nickel back in change.
499. answered D: to reply to in some way
S: When her mom called, the girl answered right away.
500. rubbish D: any material thrown away as worthless; trash
S: They threw all their rubbish into the trash can.
501. bothered D: to worry; trouble; annoy
S: He was bothered by the strange sound outside.

502. fountain D: a natural spring of water
S: The girl threw a coin into the fountain.
503. bridle D: to put reins on
S: How do you bridle a horse?
504. intended D: to have in mind as a purpose; plan
S: He intended to leave tomorrow.
505. wondered D: to feel wonder; marvel
S: He wondered at the magnificent creation of God's.
506. thereafter D: after that; from then on
S: Thereafter, the disciples did not see Jesus.
507. flask D: any small bottle with a narrow neck, often used in laboratories
S: The scientist poured the solution into the flask.
508. wrench D: any of a number of tools used for turning nuts, bolts, pipes, etc.
S: He used a wrench to loosen the bolt.
509. governor D: a person who governs
S: Who is the governor of Michigan?
510. astounded D: to bewilder with sudden surprise; astonish greatly; amaze
S: The people were astounded when Jesus healed the blind man.
511. remedy D: any medicine or treatment that cures or relieves a disease
S: Faith in Jesus as our Savior is the remedy for sin.
512. paradise D: the place of the saved after death; heaven
S: We will be in paradise forever with Jesus.
513. happened D: to take place; occur
S: What happened after Jesus rose from the dead?
514. column D: a slender upright structure; pillar
S: The column was holding up the building.
515. incline D: to lean; slope; slant
S: Does the chimney incline to the left?
516. exhibit D: to show; display
S: He came to exhibit his carvings at the hobby show.
517. doctrine D: something taught; teachings
S: We believe in the doctrine of justification by faith alone.
518. citizen D: a member of a state or nation who owes allegiance to it
S: Paul was a roman citizen.
519. bicycle D: a vehicle consisting of a metal frame mounted on two wheels
S: He rode his bicycle to school every day.
520. permission D: the act of permitting; formal consent
S: He had my permission to go if he wanted to.
521. fierce D: of a violently cruel nature; savage
S: The wild dog was very fierce looking.
522. familiar D: friendly, informal, or intimate
S: The two boys were familiar with each other.
523. wharf D: a platform built near the shore, where ships can dock
S: The ship docked at the wharf to unload its cargo.
524. previous D: occurring before in time or order; earlier
S: That must have occurred at a previous meeting.
525. terrific D: unusually great; intense
S: What was that terrific noise outside the window?

526. extremely D: at the end or outermost point; very severe; drastic
S: The trick is extremely dangerous.
527. uniform D: the special clothes worn by the members of a particular group
S: The policeman put on his uniform before he went to work.
528. resolved D: to cause to decide
S: He was resolved to get his homework done.
529. summit D: the top
S: I reached the summit of the mountain.
530. forbade D: to rule against; prohibit
S: The teacher forbade the use of pens for penmanship class.
531. breathe D: to take air into the lungs
S: Do not try to breathe under water.
532. strained D: to put through a sieve
S: The baby food was strained.
533. satisfied D: to be contented
S: The teacher was satisfied with my book report.
534. miserable D: to be very unhappy; sad
S: Having the flu makes you feel miserable.
535. unnoticed D: unseen; not given attention
S: The dog was unnoticed by the dog catcher.
536. sandals D: a type of open shoe
S: Jesus probably wore sandals on His feet.
537. comfortable D: at ease in body or mind
S: I am comfortable in a sleeping bag.
538. imprison D: to be confined unwillingly
S: They must imprison people who will not obey the law.
539. register D: record of names
S: I signed the register at the hotel.
540. shaky D: wobbly; unstable; not firm or secure
S: The leg of the table is shaky.
541. tattoo D: to puncture the skin with a needle and make pictures
S: The sailor had a tattoo on his arm.
542. controlled D: to have the power of ruling or regulating
S: The army controlled the tiny country.
543. smallpox D: highly contagious viral disease
S: Smallpox killed many Native Americans.
544. reality D: fact of becoming real
S: They discussed the reality of heaven.
545. stewardship D: the managing of one's time or money
S: A Christian's stewardship means putting God's work first.
546. foreign D: situated outside one's own country or locality
S: He visited a foreign country on his vacation.
547. agenda D: a list of things to be dealt with at a meeting
S: We followed the agenda that as prepared by the president.
548. engineer D: an operator of engines or technical equipment
S: He had been a train engineer all of his life.
549. lasso D: a long rope with a sliding noose at one end, used to catch cattle
S: He used a lasso to catch the wild horse.

550. damnation D: a damning or being damned
S: Because of our sins, we deserve eternal damnation.
551. tenement D: a house where people live
S: The family lived in a tenement in a New York City slum.
552. shield D: a broad piece of armor carried in the hand, used to ward off blows
S: The soldier dropped his shield during the battle.
553. investigate D: to research into so as to learn the facts
S: The detective had to investigate all the leads to solve the crime.
554. orchard D: an area of land where fruit trees or nut trees are grown
S: They had to irrigate the orchard during the drought.
555. ability D: a being able; power to do something
S: We should all use our God-given ability to help others.
556. military D: of, for, fit for, or done by soldiers or the armed forces
S: We had to use military force to put down the riot.
557. comedy D: a drama or narrative with a happy ending
S: The comedy we watched last night made us laugh.
558. account D: to make satisfactory amends for
S: Joe was made to account for his crime.
559. unruly D: hard to control
S: The class was very unruly.
560. everlasting D: without end; eternity
S: Heaven will be everlasting.
561. dreary D: gloomy; cheerless
S: The rainy day was dreary.
562. conceal D: to put out of sight; hide
S: The boy tried to conceal his amusement.
563. declared D: to make clearly known
S: God has declared all men not guilty for Jesus' sake.
564. spiritual D: of the spirit
S: We sang a spiritual song.
565. quarry D: place where stone, marble, or slate is excavated
S: The trucks drove into the quarry.
566. ought D: to have the duty
S: He ought to pay his bills on time.
567. trolley D: streetcar
S: We rode the trolley in San Francisco.
568. noiselessly D: without making a noise
S: The fan blew noiselessly.
569. convinced D: to overcome the doubt; persuaded
S: I am convinced that Jesus is my Savior.
570. yacht D: a large boat for pleasure cruises
S: The millionaire went on his yacht for the weekend.
571. berries D: variety of small fruits found on bushes or trees
S: We spent the morning picking berries for pie.
572. proclaimed D: make an announcement
S: The good news of Jesus's birth was proclaimed by the angels.
573. conqueror D: the victor
S: Jesus is the conqueror over sin, death, and the devil.

574. irregular D: not according to established rule or method
S: On vacation, we ate at irregular times.
575. additional D: more; extra; added
S: You will have additional homework tomorrow.
576. squarely D: firmly; solidly
S: She hit me squarely on the nose.
577. orphan D: a child whose parents are dead
S: The poor little girl was an orphan.
578. linen D: thread or cloth made of flax
S: The sheets were made of linen.
579. rehearsal D: a practice performance of a play, concert, etc.
S: The band had one last rehearsal before the concert.
580. capture D: a taking by force, surprise, or skill
S: How will we capture the fort?
581. ushered D: to show the way to or conduct others to seats
S: He ushered us to our seats at the theater.
582. saddest D: most unhappy; most sorrowful
S: The day Jesus died was the saddest day for His disciples.
583. customers D: persons who buy, especially those who buy at a particular store
S: There were many customers shopping at Meijers yesterday.
584. nevertheless D: in spite of that; nonetheless; however
S: They were losing the game; nevertheless, they kept trying.
585. whiskers D: the hair growing on a man's face
S: The whiskers on his face were very prickly.
586. mansion D: a large stately house
S: The rich man lived all alone in his mansion.
587. rogue D: vagabond or tramp; a scoundrel
S: The old man riding on the train was a rogue.
588. transportation D: a means or a system of carrying things
S: There was a good transportation system in our town.
589. righteous D: acting justly; doing what is right; upright
S: We have been made righteous through the blood of Jesus.
590. formerly D: at or in a former or earlier time; in the past
S: Iran was formerly called Persia.
591. thieves D: persons who steal, especially in secret
S: There were several thieves waiting in the dark alley.
592. discouraged D: to cause to lose courage or confidence; dishearten
S: The singer was discouraged by the lack of applause.
593. frightened D: to cause to feel fright; make suddenly afraid; scare
S: The ghost frightened the children during the night.
594. admiral D: the commanding officer of a navy or fleet
S: He was admiral during World War II.
595. centuries D: periods of 100 years
S: How many centuries ago did Christ live here on this earth?
596. starry D: set or marked with stars
S: It was a beautiful starry night.
597. varying D: differing or changing
S: The light shone with varying degrees of brightness.

598. despair D: to have lost hope; to be without hope
S: The despair of the disciples was evident when Jesus was put into the grave.
599. dandelion D: a common weed with jagged leaves and yellow flowers
S: There was just one dandelion growing in my front yard.
600. incident D: liable to happen; a happening; an event; an occurrence
S: The incident was scary for a while.
601. emergencies D: unexpected happenings or conditions calling for prompt action
S: A good leader needs the ability to deal with emergencies.
602. hammock D: a swinging couch or bed hung from the ends by rope
S: The old lady lay on a hammock that hung from the ceiling.
603. collided D: to come into violent contact; crash
S: The truck and car collided and caused a scene.
604. offered D: to suggest; propose; to bid
S: The lady offered to pay ten dollars for the picture.
605. notify D: to give notice to; inform
S: Please notify me when the present is ready.
606. cushion D: a pillow or pad; something that absorbs shock
S: The chair had a nice thick cushion.
607. rustling D: to move with energy or speed
S: The leaves went rustling through the yard.
608. situation D: location; position; or place
S: The new job put us in a difficult situation.
609. hurrying D: to move or send with haste; rush
S: Everyone was hurrying to buy World Series tickets.
610. usually D: habit; commonly or ordinarily used; normal
S: We are usually on time for school.
611. occurred D: to take place; appear; happen
S: The horrible flood occurred two years ago.
612. grateful D: thankful; welcome
S: He was grateful for all the gifts he received.
613. narrative D: a story account
S: The book was a narrative about the person's life.
614. creatures D: living beings, animals or human
S: There are a lot of strange creatures in the world.
615. earliest D: near the beginning; before the usual or expected time
S: The earliest you should arrive is 6 p.m.
616. smothered D: to keep from getting air; suffocate
S: They smothered the fire in the grass.
617. assuredly D: safe; sure; certain; convinced
S: I most assuredly will practice for the recital.
618. parallel D: lying or moving the same distance apart
S: The highway is parallel to the river.
619. orchestra D: group of players of various musical instruments
S: The orchestra was very good.
620. according D: in order of
S: The students were seated according to age.

621. exercise D: bodily exertion for sake of health
S: Walking is a good exercise.
622. supervision D: management
S: His job was to oversee the children's supervision.
623. arising D: to occur
S: A dispute was arising between the leaders.
624. peaceful D: calm and quiet
S: The countryside was very peaceful.
625. shelves D: usually long narrow pieces of board or metal fastened to the wall
S: The shelves on the wall are to put books on.
626. described D: to write to tell about; to give an account of
S: Sue described the moon to the class.
627. loveliest D: delicately beautiful
S: Katie's dress was the loveliest at the party.
628. managed D: control and direct
S: The team had been managed by the same person for many years.
629. hospital D: an institution where sick and injured are given medical care
S: The hospital has helped many people.
630. canary D: any of various small birds largely yellow in color
S: Are you going to get a canary?
631. language D: speech of humans
S: I don't speak a foreign language.
632. personally D: in person
S: I personally will attend the meeting.
633. encased D: to enclose
S: The jewels were encased in a box.
634. triune D: three in one
S: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are triune.
635. regular D: properly fitted or qualified
S: Yesterday he was admitted as a regular member.
636. artificial D: not a natural substance
S: The artificial flowers were made of plastic.
637. weird D: unnatural; ghostly; strange
S: A weird noise came from the old run down house.
638. postpone D: to put off until some later time
S: They had to postpone the game because of rain.
639. bawling D: a shout or cry
S: The little girl was bawling for her mother.
640. static D: random noise produced in a receiver such as a hissing or cracking
S: The static on the radio prevented us from hearing the music.
641. muscles D: body tissues which aid the body in movement
S: The girl had to use her muscles to pull the rope from the ground.
642. impressed D: commanded respectful attention
S: I was very impressed by his politeness.
643. emerged D: suddenly appeared; came into view
S: The cat quickly emerged on the porch when the guests arrived.
644. bearing D: posture or attitude
S: The new kid has a mean bearing.

645. stolen D: take without right
S: My ball glove has been stolen!
646. scientists D: a person versed in science or engaged in scientific work
S: The scientists have been working on a cure for the common cold.
647. average D: typical or ordinary
S: The thief was described as being of average height.
648. murderer D: someone who commits murder or kills unlawfully
S: The police could not identify the mysterious murderer.
649. happily D: in a happy way as to laugh
S: She went out to do the raking, smiling happily.
650. discovered D: perceive for the first time
S: The cat discovered the new toy.
651. remainder D: the part that remains; the number remaining
S: Some went by bus; the remainder went by train.
652. marshmallows D: sweet spongy confection
S: The children had marshmallows in their hot chocolate.
653. whittled D: cut or carved as from wood
S: The man whittled a heart into the tree.
654. perfectly D: flawless and complete
S: The homework was done perfectly.
655. privilege D: special right or benefit belonging to a person
S: Freedom of speech is a privilege Americans have.
656. chariot D: a two wheeled horse drawn vehicle
S: In Jesus' time, a roman soldier might have driven a chariot.
657. director D: one who supervises or commands
S: The director supervised both the choir and the band.
658. terrier D: a small hunting dog
S: Uncle Joe took his terrier hunting with him.
659. occupants D: those who take possession of
S: The letter came to the house addressed to the occupants.
660. decided D: made a judgement or choice
S: The judge decided the defendant was guilty.
661. spectacles D: eyeglasses to help you see
S: The old man who couldn't see well wore spectacles.
662. probably D: likely to happen
S: When the clouds get dark, it will probably rain.
663. changeable D: capable of change; alterable
S: April weather is changeable.
664. plentiful D: in abundant supply
S: Grapes are plentiful in Europe.
665. visitors D: those who visit
S: Visitors from New England arrived last night.
666. quantities D: large amounts or numbers
S: She owns quantities of books.
667. jealously D: in a manner showing dislike or fear of rivals; envy
S: Kate acted jealously toward Mary because she received a gift.
668. bewildered D: completely confused; puzzled
S: The little girl was bewildered by the crowds and noises.

669. violent D: acting done with strong rough force
S: The man was hit with a violent blow.
670. concerning D: on the subject of
S: The policeman asked many questions concerning the accident.
671. skeleton D: the frame of bones that supports the body
S: Everyone has a skeleton inside their body.
672. tongue D: the moveable piece of flesh in the mouth
S: Johnny let the sugary treat rest on his tongue before swallowing.
673. vehicle D: any conveyance used on land
S: My mother's vehicle is a station wagon.
674. excel D: to be or do better than
S: You seem to excel in running.
675. horizon D: the line where the earth and the sky seem to meet
S: The sun was setting on the horizon.
676. vegetables D: plants whose fruit, seeds, leaves, or roots are used for food
S: We had vegetables for dinner.
677. appointed D: name for an office or position
S: We appointed him as president of the sports club.
678. heartily D: with good appetite
S: She ate very heartily.
679. sunshiny D: having much light
S: It was a sunshiny day.
680. scissors D: a tool or instrument used for cutting
S: She needed the scissors to cut the paper.
681. procedure D: a way or method of doing things
S: Everyone has a different procedure for warming up.
682. venturesome D: inclined to take risks
S: His venturesome spirit often got him into trouble.
683. violin D: a musical instrument with four strings played with a bow
S: Jack plays the violin.
684. whoops D: a series of loud noises
S: The toy spun and made loud whoops as it twisted.
685. remember D: to call back to mind
S: He had to remember he had a test today.
686. equipment D: the implements used in an operation or activity
S: They used the equipment for building bridges.
687. expected D: to think something should have happened
S: They expected them for dinner.
688. insistent D: to make a strong demand
S: He is insistent and not likely to change his mind.
689. comical D: something pertaining to comedy
S: The act was very comical.
690. slippery D: causing one to slide or fall
S: The newly waxed floor is slippery.
691. whereupon D: upon which
S: The skies darkened, whereupon, the fireworks started.
692. period D: a punctuation point at the end of a declarative sentence
S: She forgot the period at the end of her sentence.

693. merrily D: to do something cheerfully
S: He merrily took his walk through the woods.
694. foliage D: the leaves of a plant or tree
S: The foliage of the forest was beautiful.
695. grieved D: to cause grief or sorrow
S: It grieved the father to punish the son.
696. remission D: the act of freeing from just punishment
S: Christ's body and blood were shed for the remission of our sins.
697. torrents D: a rushing stream as of water or lava
S: Torrents of water were rushing in from the broken water line.
698. scaly D: covered with scales
S: Fish are very scaly.
699. funniest D: causing laughter; comical
S: That was the funniest movie I have ever seen.
700. proportions D: the size, number, or amount of one thing as compared to another
S: The proportions of foods given to eighth graders are larger than that given to first graders.
701. erected D: to raise upright
S: The builders erected the building in one month.
702. handkerchief D: a square piece of cloth for wiping the eyes, face, or nose
S: Cover your mouth with a handkerchief when you cough.
703. lemonade D: a drink made of water, sugar, and lemon juice
S: Let's make some lemonade to sell at the picnic.
704. ravines D: a deep gully worn by the action of a stream or torrent
S: There are deep ravines in the canyon.
705. distinctly D: plainly; clearly; unmistakable separated from anything else
S: I told him very distinctly what to do.
706. museum D: a building in which objects of permanent interest are displayed
S: We went to the museum for the afternoon.
707. sultry D: very hot and humid
S: Yesterday, the weather was very sultry.
708. wherever D: at, to, or in every place
S: Wherever you want to go, we will go with you.
709. meteor D: a small mass that travels through space at a great speed
S: The meteor came plunging down into the earth's atmosphere.
710. issuing D: a passing out; an exit
S: The President is issuing an executive order.
711. accurate D: free from mistakes; exact; precise
S: They have an accurate weather report.
712. elapsed D: to slip or glide away; to go by; to pass
S: Ten days elapsed before another message came.
713. equally D: in an equal manner or degree; alike; evenly
S: The candy was divided equally among the children.
714. exactly D: in an exact manner; precisely
S: The men will leave at exactly three o'clock.
715. blued D: something blue in color, the sea or sky
S: The sky had really blued in color since yesterday.

716. inspiration D: the condition of being stimulated
S: The Bible was written by inspiration of the Holy Spirit.
717. opposite D: placed or located directly across from something
S: The mailbox is on the opposite side of the road from the house.
718. windshield D: a glass screen attached to the body of a car in front of the driver
S: The foul ball cracked the car's windshield.
719. interior D: the inner part of something
S: We went into the interior of the house to stay out of the rain.
720. competition D: a contest between 2 or more people for the same thing
S: The competition for the prize was fierce.
721. threatening D: to give warning as of by a threat or sign
S: The dark clouds were a threatening sign of rain.
722. splashing D: roughly striking liquid and causing it to move and scatter
S: The high waves hit the shore splashing everyone nearby.
723. increase D: to make or become greater
S: The race car driver will increase his speed to gain the lead.
724. ammunition D: anything that can be hurled at a target
S: The policeman shot several round of ammunition at the robbers.
725. herded D: to form or put into a herd
S: The farmers herded the stay cattle into the pen.
726. fielding D: to catch, stop, and throw the ball
S: The outfielder moved backwards while fielding the baseball.
727. conversation D: oral exchange of sentiments, share opinions or ideas
S: The two engineers were having a conversation about the building
728. graceful D: displaying grace of form or action
S: The figure skater made a graceful figure eight move.
729. cedar D: tall coniferous tree of the pine family
S: Mike looked like an ant compared to the cedar tree.
730. causing D: to serve as the cause or occasion of
S: The water was causing the rocks to erode.
731. existence D: reality as opposed to appearance
S: I highly doubt the existence of the tooth fairy.
732. pretended D: not genuine or not real
S: She pretended to be a snake.
733. primary D: something that stands first in rank
S: This book will be our primary source for the study.
734. admission D: a fee charged to get into a building like a theater
S: There was an admission charge of $10.00 for a ticket.
735. parachute D: a folding umbrella-like device made of lightweight fabric
S: The pilot used a parachute to land safely on the ground.
736. protection D: the state of being protected
S: Roman soldiers used shields for protection.
737. cruelly D: in a cruel or painful manner
S: The hijacker treated us cruelly.
738. atmosphere D: the whole mass of air surrounding the earth
S: The spacecraft entered the atmosphere.
739. during D: at a point in the course of
S: He passed the slower runner during the last turn of the race.

740. board D: to come up against or attack
S: The captain told us to board the enemy ship.
741. headache D: pain in the head
S: George had a severe headache.
742. relieved D: showing relief
S: We were relieved to see the survivors.
743. safety D: the condition of being safe
S: We felt the safety given to us by the brick house.
744. handsome D: having a pleasing and appealing appearance
S: The handsome young man helped his grandmother across the street.
745. colossal D: of bulk extent power
S: The statue of a bear was a colossal statue.
746. vainly D: worthless
S: Jim tried vainly to rescue the dog.
747. approved D: to have or express favorable opinion
S: Charlie approved of Tammy's decision to move.
748. sprinkling D: to scatter in or as if in drops or particles
S: Mike was sprinkling water on the delicate flowers.
749. cutest D: attractive in a dainty or pretty way
S: The black puppy was the cutest of the litter.
750. saddle D: a leather covered, padded seat for a rider on horseback
S: The saddle was falling off of the horse.
751. reckless D: heedless; careless, rash
S: The student driver is very reckless.
752. partitioned D: to divide into distinct parts, as by line or walls
S: Carl partitioned his basement into five small rooms.
753. raisins D: a dried sweet grape of different varieties
S: The raisins in the cereal were big and sweet.
754. calmly D: not excited; quiet in action or words
S: The lady calmly replied, "No sir."
755. repeated D: done or happening again and again
S: Sara repeated the question for us.
756. hauled D: to pull or draw with force; to drag
S: Paul hauled the garbage to the end of the driveway for pickup.
757. discontented D: dissatisfied; uneasy
S: Rod cared for the discontented baby.
758. primitive D: original; first; belonging to very early time
S: The vase showed a primitive design pattern.
759. sincerely D: being honest
S: He acted sincerely about his job.
760. youngsters D: being in the early part of life
S: The neighbors' youngsters were very polite.
761. graduated D: a completed course of study
S: The girl graduated from high school.
762. ordered D: to force someone to do something
S: The boss ordered him to go to work.
763. retiring D: to withdraw or retreat
S: John is retiring from his job at the plant.

764. especially D: particularly
S: The children especially wanted to see the monkeys.
765. arrangement D: putting in order
S: She made an arrangement of flowers.
766. constructed D: to build something
S: The people constructed their houses out of dried mud.
767. commercial D: an advertisement
S: There was a commercial on television.
768. bananas D: a kind of fruit with a yellow skin
S: I had bananas for breakfast.
769. definitely D: sure to do something
S: He was definitely going to the game.
770. semester D: a school term; length of time
S: John only took one semester of geometry.
771. busily D: in a busy manner
S: She was working busily.
772. employees D: a person who works for someone
S: They are employees of Mr. Granger.
773. including D: to be included in
S: They all danced, included Philip.
774. astronomer D: one who studies space
S: He is an astronomer.
775. liquor D: a kind of alcoholic beverage
S: During the 1920's, the sale of liquor was prohibited.
776. alfalfa D: a plant with clover like leaves used as food for animals
S: The farmer bought alfalfa for his horses.
777. automobile D: a self-moving vehicle used for carrying goods
S: The horses pulled the carriage full of fruits and vegetables.
778. dissolved D: to pass or cause to pass into a solution
S: The sugar dissolved into the water.
779. division D: process of finding out how many times a number goes into another number
S: He had a long division problem.
780. easily D: an easy manner; without difficulty
S: That player is easily the best player on the team.
781. excitement D: the state of being excited
S: The excitement of winning the championship filled the stadium.
782. forgiveness D: the act of forgiving or being forgiven
S: Because Jesus died, we receive the forgiveness of sins.
783. freight D: goods or cargo carried by ships, trains, or planes
S: The freight that was on the ship was unloaded.
784. injury D: harm or damage done or suffered
S: The football player had a serious injury.
785. magazine D: a publication that contains stories or articles
S: The magazine had an article about good health practices.
786. mournful D: to feel grief
S: The family was mournful after the death of their son.

787. neither D: not one or the other
S: Neither the boys nor the girls knew where the ball was.
788. obliged D: to force or compel
S: We felt obliged to help our neighbor clean up after the storm.
789. permitted D: to give permission
S: He was permitted to go to the concert.
790. porridge D: a food made by boiling grain in water or milk
S: The oatmeal porridge was very tasty.
791. separated D: to keep apart by something in between
S: A river separated the Twin Cities.
792. surrounded D: to enclose on all sides
S: The enemy surrounded the troops.
793. unforeseen D: unexpected
S: The accident was unforeseen even though there were signs of danger.
794. superior D: higher in order, status, or rank
S: His superior officer commanded him to stand and salute.
795. tournament D: a series of contests in a sport leading to a championship
S: The baseball tournament was held at the end of the season.
796. hastily D: done in a hurry
S: The girl hastily made her bed so she could go shopping.
797. scheduled D: planned
S: The scheduled events took place on time.
798. gentlemen D: a group of courteous, gracious men
S: The three gentlemen helped direct traffic through the muddy streets.
799. proposed D: to put forth consideration or acceptance
S: He proposed going to the ice cream parlor after the movie.
800. hurricane D: a violent tropical cyclone
S: The winds of the hurricane reached 80 miles per hour.
801. completely D: lacking nothing; thorough
S: The puppy completely cleaned his food bowl.
802. repairing D: to put back into good condition
S: The man was repairing the hole in the bottom of the boat.
803. sulfur or sulphur D: a pale-yellow, nonmetallic chemical element
S: Sulfur is one of the chemicals used on a match.
804. advertised D: to call the public's attention to something
S: In order to sell her car, the woman advertised it in the paper.
805. conductor D: a person who conducts, leads, or guides
S: The conductor called the orchestra to attention.
806. twelfth D: in a series, the one that comes after eleventh
S: Which one of Jesus' disciples was chosen twelfth?
807. crescent D: the moon in it's first quarter or any shape that resembles it
S: Make the shape of a crescent out of the cookie dough.
808. committed D: to promise or pledge to do something for another
S: I was committed to help the poor and needy.
809. witnessed D: to testify; to tell; to give evidence
S: She witnessed in court regarding the facts in the accident.
810. laboratory D: a room or building used for research
S: The students met in the laboratory to dissect the frog.

811. federal D: a type of government where there is a central authority
S: The United States has a federal form of government.
812. gradual D: taking place little by little; not sharply
S: The incline up the hill was quite gradual.
813. beefsteak D: a slice of beef
S: My father barbecued the beefsteak for dinner last night.
814. juror D: a member of the jury
S: A juror must listen carefully to the evidence in a trial.
815. affect D: influence; to have an affect on
S: The right amount of water will affect a plant's growth in a positive way.
816. entirely D: not lacking any parts; whole
S: He worked the math problem in entirely the correct steps.
817. awkward D: not having grace or coordination; clumsy
S: The small child was awkward when playing the new game.
818. listening D: to make an effort to hear; to take advice
S: The class was listening to the teacher.
819. cupboard D: a closet or cabinet for storing cups, plates, food, etc.
S: After drying the dishes, please put them in the cupboard.
820. singular D: the opposite of plural; only one
S: The noun boy is in singular form.
821. biting D: to cut or chew with your teeth
S: The puppy was biting the tennis shoe.
822. sphere D: any round body like a globe or a ball
S: The earth is shaped like a sphere.
823. baptize D: to administer baptism; to apply water
S: Our minister will baptize the little baby.
824. suitable D: right for the purpose or occasion; fitting; appropriate
S: What is the suitable gift to give to a three-year old?
825. apartment D: a room or rooms to live in
S: The apartment building had no rooms left to rent.
826. obtained D: to get possession by some effort
S: He obtained his driver's license after passing the test.
827. deafening D: to make deaf; to overwhelm with noise
S: The roar of the jet engine was deafening.
828. gauze D: any very thin, loosely woven material
S: The shirt was made of a gauze material.
829. aroused D: to awaken as from sleep; to stir as to action
S: The little baby was aroused by the loud noise.
830. uncommon D: not common; rare; not usual
S: A volcano is an uncommon sight.
831. valuable D: being worth money; highly regarded as precious
S: The wealthy woman kept her valuable jewelry in a safe.
832. burglar D: a person who commits burglary
S: The policeman caught the burglar.
833. interfere D: clash; conflict; to come between for some purpose
S: Watching television can interfere with good study habits.
834. bruised D: to injure the surface of the body
S: When the toddler fell, he bruised his knee.

835. torpedo D: large, self-propelled, exploding projectile
S: The submarine launched the torpedo at the enemy ship.
836. hubbub D: a confused sound of many voices
S: The crowd's hubbub frightened the small children.
837. staring D: to look with a steady fixed gaze
S: Staring at someone is not polite.
838. obvious D: easy to see or understand
S: The answer to that math problem should be obvious.
839. genuine D: the original stock; authentic
S: The necklace has genuine stones.
840. sewage D: waste matter carried off by sewers
S: The sewage from the factory was polluting the river.
841. example D: sample; something that shows the nature or character of the rest
S: Do your homework by following the example given in the text.
842. petition D: prayer; solemn earnest request to someone in authority
S: The minister offered a petition for rain.
843. converse D: to hold a conversation; to talk
S: How long did you converse with your friend last evening?
844. secrecy D: something done in secret
S: The spy checked into the hotel in secrecy.
845. realty D: same as real estate; land and buildings
S: The realty agent sold our house.
846. monstrous D: abnormally large; enormous
S: The little child took a monstrous bite out of the apple.
847. pamphlet D: a small booklet, unbound, usually with a paper cover
S: The dentist's office handed out a pamphlet on proper care of teeth.
848. gigantic D: of, like, or fit for a giant; enormous
S: We shared a gigantic banana split.
849. notable D: worthy of notice; remarkable
S: The President of the United States is a notable person.
850. substitute D: a person or thing serving or used in place of another
S: The substitute teacher was in school for two days.
851. cabinet D: a case with drawers or shelves for storing things
S: There was no more room in the cabinet for storing the two books.
852. tactics D: any methods used to achieve a goal
S: The general employed good military tactics to capture the bridge.
853. lightened D: to make light; grow brighter
S: When we pulled the shades up, the room lightened.
854. answerable D: responsible; accountable; that which can be answered
S: The boy was answerable to his parents for breaking the window.
855. capital D: The city in which laws are made for a particular state
S: The capital of Michigan is Lansing.
856. seemingly D: without necessarily being true
S: Her actions were seemingly innocent.
857. messenger D: a person who carries a message or is sent on an errand
S: The king's messenger delivered the paper to the people.
858. assembled D: gathered into a group
S: The people assembled in the auditorium for the concert.

859. premium D: a prize, reward, or inducement to buy something
S: The premium for someone buying six candy bars is one free candy bar for every five purchased.
860. introduce D: to lead or bring in; to acquaint
S: Will you introduce your parents to your teacher?
861. admonish D: to caution against specific faults; warn
S: The mother will admonish her son for talking to strangers.
862. policy D: a wise plan
S: The policy enacted by the government involved seeking world peace.
863. schemes D: systematic programs or plans for achieving a goal
S: What schemes did the children devise for getting their way?
864. fulfilled D: to carry out; to cause to happen
S: The student fulfilled all the requirements for graduation.
865. innocent D: free from wrong
S: The man was found to be innocent of the crime.
866. trough D: a long, open container for holding water or feed for animals
S: The horses came to drink at the trough.
867. companies D: a groups gathered for social or business purposes
S: The presidents of six companies met for a meeting.
868. farewell D: parting words; goodbye
S: When the student left for college, he wished his friends farewell.
869. institute D: to set up; establish; found; to start; initiate
S: The school will institute a new dress code.
870. weather D: the general condition of the atmosphere of any particular time
S: The weather today is cold and stormy.
871. author D: the writer of a book or article
S: The author of the book is Charles Dickens.
872. siege D: the surrounding of a city or fort by an enemy army
S: The Persians laid siege to the city of Troy.
873. adultery D: sin against the 6th Commandment; not being faithful to a spouse
S: God says, "You shall not commit adultery."
874. sacrifice D: an offering of the life of an animal or person; to give something up
S: A calf was one kind of animal that was often offered as a sacrifice.
875. toboggan D: a long, narrow, flat sled without runners
S: We had fun sledding down the hill on a toboggan.
876. opponents D: one who opposes or goes against
S: The opponents of the bill did not want Congress to pass it.
877. containing D: to hold; to have something in
S: The bottle containing the explosive liquid fell to the floor.
878. medallion D: a large medal
S: The athlete wore the gold medallion around his neck.
879. strength D: the quality of being strong, powerful
S: The weight lifter possessed great strength.
880. patiently D: enduring trouble without complain; calm
S: The little boy waited patiently to open his presents.
881. wreckage D: the remains of something that has been wrecked
S: The treasure hunters search the wreckage of the sunken ship.

882. intelligent D: having or using intelligence; mental ability
S: An intelligent person learns from his own experiences.
883. possession D: something owned; possessed
S: The basketball team had possession of the ball.
884. oxygen D: a colorless, odorless, tasteless, gaseous element
S: We all need to breathe oxygen to maintain our life.
885. gradually D: taking place little by little; not sharp
S: He gradually filled the water glass to the rim.
886. appreciate D: to think well of; to enjoy
S: I appreciate it when someone tells me I did a good job.
887. accomplished D: done; completed
S: Winning the baseball championship was accomplished through hard work and commitment to the team.
888. disagreeable D: not to one's taste; unpleasant; offensive
S: Rotten eggs have a very disagreeable odor.
889. princess D: a female member of a royal family
S: The princess toured the United States on an official visit.
890. tremendous D: very large; great
S: The tremendous size of that great oak tree was magnificent.
891. alighted D: to get down or off; dismounted
S: The rider alighted from his horse in one easy motion.
892. temporal D: lasting for only a time; of this world
S: The things of this world are temporal; that is, they will die.
893. afternoon D: the time of day from noon to evening
S: The basketball coach called an afternoon practice for the team.
894. announcing D: to give notice publicly; proclaim
S: The candidate was announcing his plans to run for President.
895. throughout D: all the way through
S: Throughout the trial, the man maintained his innocence.
896. nibbling D: to eat with quick, small bites
S: The rabbit was nibbling on the carrot.
897. glimpse D: to catch a brief, quick view of
S: We caught a glimpse of the President as his limousine drove by.
898. jerked D: to pull or twist with a sudden, sharp movement
S: The puppy jerked his head in an effort to get away.
899. president D: the highest executive officer of a company, country, etc.
S: The executive of the company hopes to be the company's president one day.
900. submarine D: something that functions beneath the surface of the sea
S: The submarine stayed under water for three months.
901. neighborhood D: people living near each other; community
S: The people of the community formed a neighborhood watch.
902. destruction D: a destroying or being destroyed
S: The tornado caused much destruction in the city.
903. attorney D: any person having the legal power to act for another
S: The attorney pleaded the case of the accused man before the jury.
904. knapsacks D: a canvas bag used for carrying equipment and supplies
S: The hikers carried two knapsacks filled with their equipment.

905. smokestack D: a pipe used for the discharge of smoke from a factory
S: Heavy thick smoke poured from the factory's smokestack.
906. republican D: a person who favors a republic form of government
S: A republican would believe all people have the right to vote.
907. memorized D: something committed to memory
S: The student memorized the Gettysburg Address by Abraham Lincoln.
908. important D: meaning a great deal; having great significance
S: The president called an important business meeting.
909. grammar D: study of language
S: The English teacher gave the students a grammar assignment.
910. information D: an informing or being told
S: The tourist went to the information booth to get a campsite map.
911. excellent D: of outstanding quality
S: The student's report was excellent.
912. certainly D: beyond a doubt; surely
S: That thunderstorm certainly scared the children.
913. megaphone D: a large, funnel-shaped device used to amplify the sound of a voice
S: The cheerleader used a megaphone during the cheer.
914. minnows D: a small freshwater fish
S: We used minnows for bait when we went fishing.
915. organized D: to arrange in an orderly manner
S: They organized the schedule for games so everyone could play.
916. scorching D: to char or discolor the surface of something by burning
S: The scorching sun dried up the grass.
917. anthem D: a religious choir song
S: The choir sang a new anthem for the worship service.
918. passenger D: a person traveling in some type of vehicle
S: The airline passenger was late arriving at the airport.
919. aghast D: a great feeling of horror
S: The people were aghast as they looked at the damage to the house.
920. mortar D: a mixture of cement, sand, and water used between bricks
S: The cement mason mixed the mortar before starting to build the wall.
921. thought D: the act or process of thinking
S: The student was deep in thought as she took the test.
922. carnival D: a traveling entertainment with rides, games, etc.
S: My favorite ride at the carnival is the Ferris wheel.
923. nervous D: tense or restless
S: While waiting for the principal, the student became very nervous.
924. library D: a room or building where a collection of books is kept
S: The student needed to do research work in the library.
925. missionary D: a person sent out by his church to preach in a foreign country
S: The missionary went to India to preach about Jesus.
926. watermelon D: a large, edible fruit with a green rind and pink or red pulp
S: We always have an ice-cold watermelon our July 4th picnic.
927. beckoned D: to call or summon by gesture
S: The mother beckoned to her small child.
928. education D: an educating or being educated
S: Parents want their children to get a good education.

929. surely D: certainly or indeed
S: Surely, that man was innocent of any wrongdoing.
930. curly D: having curls
S: The little girl had very curly hair.
931. shepherd D: a person who herds sheep
S: The shepherd herded his sheep to the pasture.
932. supreme D: highest in rank, power, quality; most excellent
S: God is our supreme being.
933. brilliant D: shining brightly; vivid; intense
S: The brilliant star shone on top of the Christmas tree.
934. design D: to make sketches of; to plan; to devise creatively
S: The company accepted the architect's design.
935. mountains D: a natural raised part of the earth's surface, larger than a hill
S: The mountains stretched across the horizon.
936. discussion D: talk or writing in which the pros and cons are considered
S: The businessmen held a discussion as to the best way to proceed.
937. finely D: the adverb form of the word fine; superior in quality
S: The mechanic finely tuned the car.
938. ivory D: the hard white substance forming the tusks of elephants
S: Many elephants were slaughtered for their ivory tusks.
939. maniac D: a wildly insane person
S: The policeman had trouble controlling the maniac.
940. misspelled D: to spell incorrectly
S: The doctor misspelled the word as he gave the prescription.
941. amazement D: the amazed condition; great wonder; astonishment
S: The child watched in amazement as the magician performed tricks.
942. vigorous D: strong; robust; forceful
S: The swimmer used vigorous strokes as he swam across the lake.
943. absolve D: to pronounce free from guilt or blame
S: The pastor will absolve the sins of the people.
944. terrible D: causing terror; fearful; dreadful
S: The terrible accident caused people to drive carefully.
945. lettuce D: a plant whose green leaves are good to eat
S: It is good to eat a lettuce salad with your meal.
946. agreement D: an agreeing or being in harmony
S: The two countries signed a peace agreement.
947. ignorant D: lacking knowledge, education, or experience
S: The small child was ignorant of the correct way to address an adult.
948. horrible D: causing a feeling of horror; terror; dreadful
S: The horrible storm caused the little child to cry.
949. fourth D: proceeded by three others in a series
S: I was fourth in the line behind my three friends.
950. fastened D: to join one thing to another; attach; to make secure
S: The teacher fastened the nametag to the kindergartner's jacket.
951. memorable D: worth remembering; notable
S: The fourth of July was a memorable occasion.
952. absurd D: so clearly untrue that it is laughable
S: The student gave an absurd answer to the teacher's question.

953. seriously D: earnestly; solemnly; not joking
S: The judge told the jury to take their job seriously.
954. slightest D: slender; frail; having little weight; small in amount
S: The slightest breeze will cause the chimes to sound.
955. performance D: the act of performing; functioning
S: The singer's performance was very well attended.
956. permanent D: lasting or intending to last for a long time
S: Your baby teeth are replaced by permanent teeth.
957. identify D: to show to be the person or thing described
S: Can you identify the person you saw at the store?
958. veteran D: having had long experience in some type of work
S: The veteran served his country in World War II.
959. altered D: to make different in details
S: The tailor altered the style of the collar on the suit.
960. recovered D: to get something back that was lost or stolen
S: The police recovered the stolen television.
961. thoroughly D: done or proceeding through to the end; complete
S: The dentist told the boy to thoroughly brush his teeth.
962. undisturbed D: to remain calm and quiet
S: The baby had three hours of undisturbed sleep.
963. sputtering D: to spit out in an explosive manner
S: The old engine came sputtering to life.
964. gopher D: a burrowing rodent; a striped ground squirrel
S: The gopher made a tunnel that ran through the front yard.
965. totally D: the whole or entire thing
S: The child was totally absorbed in watching the bear cub.
966. coral D: the hard, stony skeleton of some sea life
S: While vacationing in Hawaii, we dove for pink coral along the reef.
967. balsam D: any of a variety of trees that yields this aromatic oil
S: We used a Canadian balsam for our Christmas tree.
968. reached D: thrust out or extended
S: The little baby reached for the brightly colored ball.
969. direction D: the act of directing or giving instructions
S: What direction did the teacher give regarding handing in your report?
970. provide D: to make available; to supply
S: The coach will provide all the equipment needed to play basketball.
971. mathematics D: a group of sciences dealing with numbers and symbols
S: In mathematics class, we studied the four basic operations.
972. inspection D: a careful examination
S: The captain held a surprise inspection of the new recruits.
973. crumpled D: to crush or become crushed
S: The exhausted dancer crumpled into a heap.
974. millions D: amounting to one million in number
S: In the United States, millions of people watch baseball.
975. invalid D: someone who is not well; to be weak or sickly
S: The invalid had to remain in the hospital for two more weeks.
976. graveyard D: a cemetery
S: The funeral procession ended in the church's graveyard.

977. various D: differing from one another
S: There are various ways you can go about solving a problem.
978. expression D: a manner of expressing; a show of feeling
S: The happy expression on her face made us all feel good.
979. apparel D: clothing; attire
S: What type of apparel did people wear in the 1800's?
980. altar D: a table used in a place of worship
S: During the Trinity season, green cloths are placed on the altar.
981. horror D: a strong feeling caused by something fearful
S: The lady gasped in horror when she saw the Halloween costume.
982. luckily D: having good luck; fortune
S: I locked my keys in the car, luckily I had an extra key.
983. prisoners D: a person confined in prison
S: The prisoners were to be held in jail for five years.
984. herald D: a person who carried messages and made proclamations
S: The king's herald announced the beginning of the tournament.
985. attached D: connected to
S: The string was attached to the balloon.
986. cherubs D: originally referring to angels; now refers to a sweet-faced child
S: The first graders looked like cherubs as they performed the play.
987. puzzled D: to be perplexed or confused
S: Seeing two good friends fighting puzzled me.
988. conference D: a meeting
S: The teachers held a conference to discuss new teaching methods.
989. trickling D: to flow slowly in a thin stream
S: The water was trickling down the hillside.
990. snipe D: any of certain wading birds
S: The snipe was seen along the shoreline of the lake.
991. genius D: one who has much knowledge
S: Albert Einstein was considered to be a genius.
992. pudding D: a sweet dessert
S: I like to have chocolate pudding for lunch.
993. sustain D: to carry through to the end
S: The singer was able to sustain the note for four measures.
994. fatally D: resulting in death; very destructive
S: The policeman was forced to fire his gun fatally wounding the thief.
995. quite D: completely; entirely
S: He was quite through eating lunch.
996. struggling D: having a hard time
S: The student was struggling to get his math done on time.
997. ambulance D: a vehicle which transports person needing medical attention
S: When an ambulance approaches, drivers are supposed to move to the side of the road to let it pass safely.
998. objection D: not agreeing with
S: The lawyer raised an objection to the judge's decision.
999. confronted D: to stand or meet face to face
S: The two complainants confronted each other in the courtroom.

1000. description D: to give details; to describe
S: The description given by the witness helped police to capture the criminal.
1001. scrimmage D: a practice game
S: The basketball coach arranged a scrimmage game with the neighboring school.
1002. numerous D: many; having lots
S: There were numerous reports of accidents after the snowstorm.
1003. explanation D: to explain why
S: The people accepted the explanation given by the scientists.
1004. depot D: a storehouse; a warehouse; a railroad station
S: The passengers left the depot to board the train.
1005. electricity D: an electric current
S: The electricity ran through the extension cord.
1006. aggravating D: annoying; bothersome
S: The loud crying of the infant was aggravating the actors on stage.
1007. soulful D: full of or showing deep emotion
S: The lonesome coyote gave a soulful cry.
1008. carriage D: a carrying or transportation
S: The women rode in a carriage to escape the attack.
1009. generally D: widely; popularly; in most instances; usually
S: The weather forecasters are generally correct in their forecasts.
1010. accompany D: to go along with
S: The paramedic will accompany the injured man in the ambulance.
1011. suspense D: mysterious; unknown
S: The author's style of writing held you in suspense until the very end.
1012. admonished D: to caution against faults; warn
S: The father admonished his children against going too close to the deep water.
1013. catechism D: a book containing teachings; book of questions and answers
S: After studying the catechism, a young Christian is ready for confirmation.